

Family Medicine

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE SOCIETY OF TEACHERS OF FAMILY MEDICINE

Appendix 2: Funding Sources of Funded Included Articles (By Frequency)

Funding Source*	Examples	Number (Percent) of Funded Included Articles ⁺ n=89
US Health Resources and Services Administration and its predecessors	Bureau of Health Professions, Office of Rural Health Policy, Public Health Service, Health Careers Opportunity Program	26 (29.2%)
Internal (department or college) funds	Department of Family Medicine of the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, University of California-San Francisco Center for the Health Professions	18 (20.2%)
State, province, or city government	New South Wales Department of Health, Commonwealth Fund of New York City, State of Minnesota, Alberta Rural Action Plan	17 (19.1%)
Private foundation	Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Duke Endowment, W.K. Kellogg Foundation	11 (12.3%)
Family medicine or internal medicine organization	Family Medicine for America's Health, American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Physicians	6 (6.7%)
Australian national government	Department of Health and Ageing, Rural Clinical Schools Program	4 (4.5%)

US National Institutes of Health	National Center for Minority Health and Health Disparities, National Research Service Award (NRSA) Fellowship	3 (3.3%)
Canadian national government	National Health Grant	1 (1.1%)
State medical associations	Minnesota Medical Association	1 (1.1%)
US Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality		1 (1.1%)
US Department of Defense	National Security Education Program	1 (1.1%)

*When multiple funding sources were used, the study was classified using the first or primary listed funding source.

+An additional 110 articles did not indicate a funding source.

Denotes federal funding source